

B. B. [Name], Editor.

OLATHE, JANUARY 9, 1864.

Some of Our Wants.

This town has been settled for six years, and yet to this day we have no regular burial place. The Church Square, though not originally designed for that purpose, has been used for burying until the lots adjoining have been encroached upon, and it is now thought that no more than one-half of the graves are on the church square. This square (one third of a block, or about three-fourth of an acre,) is altogether insufficient for such a purpose. The ladies are making an effort to fence it by holding bi-weekly meetings. We hope these meetings will be well sustained, and before the matter is dropped let us procure a new lot for a cemetery.

A. [Name] and others crossed the Arka [Name], for the Spillman, with them at Barron [Name] country, fought routed them and

From all points learn that there now to be seen, adopted by the co effectually and the murderous miscre adjoining us. The the soldiers un perfectly every that has been inf by these fiends, for, and how to want persons in on duty here wh experience. W from the incuria murderers and in we are under the have secured th such feeling, we political demagog patronage of a may be thrown care more for tation than for the community, desir made.

It is time th contractors and b irregular claims