The numerous personal friends of J. W. Thompson, late of Company K, 10th K. V. W., will be pleased to learn of his death from the Kansas City Journal which, by the way, states that he fell in the charge on the rebel works near Blakely, Ala., on the 9th of April. He was a brave and gallant soldier, and was one of the foremost in the charge in which he lost his life.

At the time of his enlistment he was a resident of Aubrey, in this county, where he has many friends who will mourn his loss.

After a distressing and lingering illness, Miss Eliza Beckwith, at 2 o'clock A.M. on Sunday, April 30.

Though for more than a year the victim of a cancer, her death does not seem to have been caused thereby but by an affection of the stomach. She had been expecting death, and yet it came as usual in an uneventful way. She had done her work for she did literally "what she could" and the wish of her last audible utterance twenty-four hours before death "I want to go home, I have been granted. Though for a long time an extreme and constant sufferer, her resignation never failed her nor was her faith obscured, and it is a source of satisfaction to feel so well assured that she is now "where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest."
